

Chime In

Stay connected whilst you ride. Get involved as you bike-commute. Send a Like whilst you exercise.

Many of us think that biking means being disconnected. This results in lost productivity, or worse, lost cycle time – with all its mental and physical benefits.

However, it's now possible to keep your eyes on the road, yet still react to your coworkers.

Just Chime In!

How does it work?

Go for a ride

Hear your chats

Ring your bell to react

Ring your bell to show how much you like a comment

One Ring for Like

Two Rings for Love

Three Rings for whatever you choose
